

AT&T Cybersecurity Consulting – Vulnerability Scanning Battlecard

AT&T Cybersecurity Consulting—Vulnerability Scanning Services is a portfolio of security consulting services & solutions that can help protect your information assets by evaluating (either at an IP address or enterprise level) the security posture of the IP devices connected to your computing networks.

Did you know?

$152

The average cost of a data breach per U.S. customer record

Common causes of data breaches are malicious or criminal attacks, business process failure & human error

$3.94 million

The average overall organizational cost of a data breach for a US company

Top ways businesses utilize AT&T vulnerability scanning solutions

Help reduce risks of a data breach

Help work toward compliance obligations (PCI, HIPAA, & SOX)

Help validate that patch management tools are working properly

Help maintain security posture & business continuity in situations of internal IT turnover.

Help demonstrate due diligence expected by security savvy customers

Benefits

Improve Security
Scan multiple systems & multiple ports rapidly to help detect flaws

Save Valuable IT Resources
Vulnerability scanning solution that has a less than 1% false positive rate

Expertise & Support
Get on-demand Personal Security Analyst

Maximize Resources
Reduce overhead associated with managing a vulnerability scanning program

Streamline Operations
State-of-the-art workflow management tool